KIKLI

Two girls, an old haveli, and an afternoon with nowhere to be. Watercolour florals in pink, ivory and sky blue, pearl dot necklines and rainbow stripe dupattas that move with you. Easy silhouettes, breathable fabrics, details that feel considered without trying too hard. Saheli is everyday dressing for the days that end up meaning the most. Wear it for her, wear it with her, wear it because she said you looked good.

The woman on the right is wearing a yellow kurta with floral embroidery and a dupatta with a striped border. The background shows a white wall with a dark doorway, a hanging lantern, and some potted plants.
