KIKLI

देहरी

Rose pink, teal and sage, with large painterly florals that look like they grew straight out of the garden just outside. The old green door, terracotta pots, wild ferns, a small bell above the frame. Two girls on the step, unhurried, phone in hand, laughing at something only they understand. Dehri is the in-between moment, neither inside nor out, neither ready nor gone. Easy fits, botanical prints and crochet details for the girl who lingers a little longer at every door she opens.
