The principle of the design - the harmony, rhythm and balance are all the same with interior and fashion design.

We cannot fashion our children after our desires, we must love them and love them as God has given them to us.

I love fashion, I love being able to have fun with it, but I think I need to get a little bit more organized before I ever become a true fashionista.

I love Fall Fashion Week because it means lots of layering, long sweaters and vintage coats.
